

ENGLISH LETTORATO AT DISPES TS

Lettorato courses are all about exploring and using the foreign language.

English Lettorato at DISPES TS provides students with activities aimed at building the four skills (speaking, writing, listening, and reading). Vocabulary is expanded, pronunciation is refined, and overall communication skills are improved. It is through regular practice and individual feedback that learners make progress and succeed in using a foreign language skillfully. Students attending the DISPES TS English Lettorato courses will build their English in enjoyable and meaningful ways via select digital resources and language learning activities, thus providing students with a comprehensive language-learning experience. There are many good reasons to improve one's English language skills. Join the English Lettorato course to help improve yours.

English Lettorato course schedule (1st semester 2024/25):

Classes start on September 30th

Lettorato for Political and Social Science – for second-year students (starting September 30th):

Mondays, 1-3pm, PC Lab (building A, 4th floor)

Wednesdays, 10am-12pm, PC Lab (building A, 4th floor)

Lettorato for Business – for third-year students (starting October 2nd):

Wednesdays, 2-4pm, PC Lab (building A, 4th floor)

Thursdays, 9-11am, Room 425 (building A, 4th floor)

The above courses are for students of all levels.

For more information, students may contact the language teacher in charge: Joanne Baldoni at jbaldoni@units.it